

'DO NOT ATTEMPT TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE INMATES
THROUGH THE FENCE'

Come watch two surreal compilations of media footage from revolts that have occurred inside and outside of two jails in St. Louis, Missouri.

JULY 16th
9:00 PM

WE'RE TOO HOT
follows a demonstration in 2017 at the city's former holdover facility: the Workhouse. It was sparked by a heat-wave that sent temperatures inside the A/C-less jail into the 110s. In 2021, the Workhouse was closed after a long campaign against it, but this has left the equally notorious second jail, the Justice Center, to pick up the slack. 6 mins

Bryan Park,
North Shelter
1001 Henderson St

Breaking the Fourth Wall
(or A Justice Center Recruitment Video)

is a slog that seeks to keep up with the comical and particularly appalling management of the Justice Center, which has seen a scandalous amount of "disturbances," riots, hostage takings and full-on uprisings over the since 2020. As well as, 18 prisoner deaths in that time. 26 minutes

What does abolition look like?